Religious Preference

DeKalb, Illinois is an urban community with an industrial and commercial base located in a rural setting. The city is home to Northern Illinois University.

With almost 38% of the population identifying as non-Christian or having no religious preference, the Presbytery of Northern Illinois intends, by God's grace, to expand the reach of the gospel in the city by planting the first PCA church in DeKalb.

The Presbytery foresees a healthy and growing, self-sustaining and self-governing, local PCA church characterized by vibrant Christ-centered worship, effective ministries of evangelism, mercy, and missions coupled with transformational fellowship and discipleship in DeKalb all to the glory of God.

The Presbytery of Northern Illinois will also have the support of the Midwest Alliance. By the grace of God, this first PCA church in DeKalb will make disciples who will then help to spread the gospel, multiplying praise to God and planting churches throughout the region.

Candidate Strengths

- Loves and trusts God far more than he loves or trusts anyone or anything else
- Intentional in evangelism and cares deeply about relationships
- Desire to put down roots and equip people for ministry
- A strong preacher - Bible is taught clearly, wholly, compellingly, and is applied to life

Support

- The Presbytery will provide prayer, financial, and logistical support to the church planter
- Opportunities for mentoring, internships, and cohort participation for those preparing for church planting

Imagine

A church that leads people into a growing relationship with Jesus Christ and equips them to give their lives away for the cause of Christ and the glory of God.

A church that actively, intentionally, wisely and faithfully seeks to plant other churches in our community, region and world.
