Religious Preference

In 2015 Limitless Decatur was unveiled as the new brand for Decatur, Illinois. The hope was that marketing Decatur as modern and progressive would help to attract and retain businesses and residents to this third-fastest shrinking city.

With more than 36% of the population identifying as non-Christian or having no religious preference, the people of Decatur are in need of something that limitless growth can't provide, they are in need of the gospel. The Presbytery of Northern Illinois intends, by God's grace, to bring the gospel to the community by planting the first PCA church in Decatur.

The Presbytery foresees a healthy and growing, self-sustaining and self-governing, local PCA church characterized by vibrant Christ-centered worship, effective ministries of evangelism, mercy, and missions coupled with transformational fellowship and discipleship in Decatur all to the glory of God.

The Presbytery of Northern Illinois will also have the support of the Midwest Alliance. By the grace of God, this first PCA church in Decatur will make disciples who will then help to spread the gospel, multiplying praise to God and planting churches throughout the region.
